

Nantwich Museum

Home of the town's history

Diary of Events

February 2017

Every effort has been made to ensure the details are correct but you are advised to check times and dates before attending any of the events.

Exhibitions

Millennium Gallery

Talking Pictures

An exhibition by local artist Nicholas Ferenczy

Paintings, drawings & prints by Nantwich-based artist, Nicholas Ferenczy explores the collisions of image and text. Many make use of figures – one of the artist’s ongoing interests. Following on from Nicholas’s involvement as an in-house writer and editor on popular magazines (such as The Horrible Histories Collection), some pieces use text (as speech bubbles/thought bubbles/captions) combined with painted images – often for comic effect. Says Nicholas: “This is real – that’s to say, authentic – art. It is not mass-produced for commercial galleries. I hope you can spot the difference!”

Exhibitions

Your Space

The Road to Battle

An exhibition about the lead up to the Battle of Nantwich, including material about the Battle of Middlewich. Material has been put together by the Museum's Research Group and panels have been kindly loaned by Middlewich Heritage Centre.

10 January – 25 February

Forlorn Fragments

Phunton, Dumfries and Galloway

By Marguerite Turner

This exhibition is by another local artist and explores the artist's interest in medieval buildings.

28 February – 6 May

February Half-term Workshops

Drop in children's half-term workshops will be taking place on Wednesday 22nd and Thursday 23rd February between 11am and 3pm. Lots of arts, crafts and activities inspired by Talking Pictures exhibition and Medieval manuscripts.
£2 per child and all children must be accompanied by a guardian.

Quiz Night – Sunday 19th March from 7pm

Ideal Sunday evening for any competitive quiz goers out there or anyone interested in helping to support a fundraising event for the museum. A £5 ticket includes entry to the quiz and refreshments. A raffle will also be running.

Venue: The Vagrants Sports Club, Newcastle Road, Willaston.

Please pre-buy tickets. They can also be reserved by emailing back to this address.

Pancake Day Coffee Morning on Tuesday 28th February

Join us between 11am and 1pm for pancakes and a cup of tea or coffee in our wonderful Millennium Gallery.

£3 per person.

Development of Dementia Friendship Group

We are pleased to be able to announce that our presentation to secure funding from the Participatory Budget Fund was successful and we will receive £2470 towards the further development of the Museum's Dementia Friendship Group.

When: 2pm on the first Monday of every month & 2pm on the third Monday of every month for a session with Musical Moments

Price: Free!

Ring for more details.

Evening Class- A County Destroyed by the Civil War – the Civil War in Cheshire

This is a ten week evening class running at the museum from September - December 2017 considering the Civil War conflict with particular reference to this locality.

Participants will be introduced to the protagonists, consider the general background to the war and key events leading to the consequences for local people and their property. The significance of propaganda as a tool of war will be considered and its significance influencing the accuracy of contemporary accounts of the time.

For more information and to reserve a place, contact the museum.

Contact Details

Address: Nantwich Museum, Pillory Street, Nantwich, Cheshire, CW5 5BQ

Telephone: 01270 627104

Website: www.nantwichmuseum.org.uk

Email: enquiries@nantwichmuseum.org.uk

Facebook: The Nantwich Museum

Twitter: @nantwichmuseum